BRENTWOOD NOTES.

The Benevolent Order No. 102 had its installation last Wednesday.
Mrs. R. E. Hunt, of St. Louis, is visiting the bedside of her brother.
Miss Lula Perkins, of Memphis, spent a few days here last week.
Mr. John Gentry got his eye seriously hurt last week at work.
Mrs. Hortense Owens is indisposed this week.
Mrs. Lucy Clayborne spent Sunday in Nashville.
Baptizing will be held here Sunday.
Excellent services were held at the Brooks Chapel M. E. Church last Sunday.
There will be a Key rally at the First Baptist Church next Sunday.

MOORSVILLE NOTES.

Mr. Gilbert Moore spent Sunday with Miss Miranda Gentry.
Mr. R. R. Patrick spent Sunday with Miss Ella Huggant.
Mr. Daniel spent Sunday with Miss Othel Holt.
On May the first there will be a rally at McKinley Church.
Mr. P. H. Fitzpatrick spent a few days with his brother.

FARMINGTON NOTES.

Rev. R. A. Dowell was at his post Sunday.
Miss Maud Robinson and little Miss Martha E. Dryden are on the sick list.
Misses Velma Fitzpatrick, Mattie Mitchell and Messrs. Crag Moore, Renza Fitzpatrick and Master Thomas and Homer Fitzpatrick, of Moorsville, spent Wednesday with Prof. J. B. Jones' school. In the afternoon the teachers, scholars and visitors went to Russell Park and witnessed a wonderful baseball game.
Mr. Mayhue is on the sick list.

WAYNESBORO NOTES.

Rev. R. L. Williams, our pastor, returned from New Zealand Monday. He reports a good success, considering the inclemency of the weather.
The Waynesboro Circuit has four charges, New Zealand, being the last one attended in the month. The whole circuit has put on new life, every charge being well pleased with their pastor. Rev. Williams believes in going forward, pushing every avenue of the church work onward. We consider him a strong head light. The wonderful work of Waynesboro Circuit that has been lying dormant so long is, now, being uncovered. The Epworth League is largely attended every Sunday afternoon. The young people are being interested in this work.
Mrs. R. L. Williams was the guest of Mrs. J. W. Wigfall Sunday evening. The coming of Halley's comet was the chat of the evening.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pointer have gone to house-keeping on Main street.
Mr. Leon Ross gave Miss Mary Hix a call Sunday evening.
The people are in fear of fruit being killed if cold weather continues. The farmers in this section are waiting on the change of weather to replant their corn that was destroyed by the high water a few days ago.

SOUTH PITTSBURG NOTES.

Dr. W. Sampson Brooks lectured at the A. M. E. Church Friday night, the 22nd inst., to a crowded house. We heard many expressions from the people of being highly pleased with both the lecture and the exhibit. Dr. W. Sampson Brooks and his associate, Rev. A. Brooks, were the guests of Rev. W. H. Boddie and Mr. and Mrs. Bivens while here. They left on the a. m. train Saturday morning for Nashville.
The A. M. E. Zion Church's spring rally will be pulled off next Sunday, May 1st. This church has been remodeled. Everybody is expected to turn their attention toward Zion on next Sunday. Rev. E. O. Cowan, the pastor, hopes to clear her of all indebtedness that day.
Mrs. Ellen Smith has returned from Chattanooga after an absence of several days.
Mrs. J. M. Hawkins spent a night recently with Mrs. John Lane, who lives out on the Jasper Pike.
Rev. W. J. Hancock, of near McMinnville, spent a day here last week the guest of his sister, Mrs. W. T. Denny.
Miss Janie A. Lightfoot has returned from points up the valley. Miss Lightfoot speaks in encouraging terms of her secret order work.
Prof. Shockley and Kearley, of Jasper and Victoria, respectively, were in town last Saturday.
The party given by Miss Beatrice Hise, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Henry, last Saturday night, was a decided success. Many of the younger set were present.
Dr. W. J. Astrapp gave a most interesting lecture at the M. E. Church Sunday night, subject, "Tuberculosis." He dwelt upon the causes, the evidences, when it can be cured and how cured. The doctor also emphasized cleanliness, pure air, sunshine, work and abstinence from meat and distilled or malt liquors, etc., as being health promoters. Prior to the lecture a literary program consisting of papers and musical numbers was rendered.

Mr. J. J. Cummings takes a copy of the Globe regularly; also Mrs. Emma Bivens and Prof. and Mrs. P. Patton.

The County Institute will convene at the County School House on the hill Monday, May 9th at 8:30 a. m. Prof. Alan Kelly, County Superintendent, instructor. All colored teachers who expect to teach should be present.

Rev. A. McCamey is improving at this writing.

Mr. A. H. Eldridge is able to be out again after several weeks' illness.
Mr. Louis Smith and old Mr. Ore are no more. The former died here and was buried here; the latter died at the County Hospital at Jasper and was buried there.

UNA NOTES.

Mrs. Ben Vanleer continues very ill.
Mr. Albert Buchanan, General Messenger of the Insane Asylum, who has been indisposed, is better at this writing.
Rev. C. H. Williams was absent on last Sunday from the regular services at Solomon Chapel. The services were conducted by Rev. C. H. Simmons.
Mr. H. Canon and wife and Mrs. Jennie Burnett have beautified their homes.
The Solomon Chapel Sunday-School is making fast preparations for Children's Day.
Benevolent Order No. 107 contemplates giving a grand prize entertainment sometime in May.
Mr. Robert Foster, who received a kick by a vicious mule, is doing nicely.

Rev. Tyree White has returned home from his missionary work.
Mrs. Matilda Felts is very ill at this writing. Her friends and members of B. O. No. 107 wish her recovery.
The Mount Nebo School, taught by Miss Mayme Allison, closed on last Friday. Quite a nice time was realized.
Mr. Richard Davis made a flying trip to Chicago.

Mr. Van Searcy was the guest of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Maggie Harris, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Peebles visited Mrs. Bradford last Sunday.

Mr. J. E. Blair and Mrs. A. Scott called to see Mrs. Matilda Felts on Sunday.

Mr. Frank Burnett has now begun employment at the N. C. & St. L. shops.

Miss Carolina McKelvy was in Nashville last week visiting relatives.

FRANKLIN NOTES.

Mrs. James Davis was hostess of the meeting of the Kensington Art Club Wednesday, April 20th, 1910. Each member responded to the roll call with a quotation. The President Mrs. Maggie G. Washington, presided over the meeting. After business was transacted, the hostess served them to tempting afternoon refreshments, consisting of two courses. Miss Hazel Doyle will be hostess of the next meeting.

The For-Get-Me-Not Art Club met last week with Mrs. Henry Mitchell. Fourteen members were present. The Club was opened in the usual way by the president, Mrs. Ewing. A motion was made that the Club disband until fall, but the motion was overruled, as some of the members had not entertained the club and felt it their duty to entertain before they disbanded. Quite a deal of art work is being accomplished by the ladies. Later in the afternoon delicious refreshments served in three courses were enjoyed. Mrs. J. D. Mitchell and Mrs. Carroll Hodge were present as guests of the Club. The next meeting will be with Misses Sadie and Mira L. Murdoc.

Mr. Albert Woldridge was out from Nashville Tuesday to the burial of his uncle, Mr. Archie Wadkins.

Mr. Dan Williams was here Tuesday from Nashville to the burial of Mr. Wadkins.

Prof. J. K. Hughes, of Bingham, Tenn., was in town Saturday and Sunday.

Elder Martin and Prof. Baker were here Sunday in the interest of the Jonesboro School.

Mr. Archie Wadkins departed this life Monday night at his home on Winstead's Hill. Mr. Wadkins was in his 92nd year. He leaves a daughter, son-in-law and two brothers, Messrs. George Puryear and Bost Woldridge, and many relatives to mourn his loss. Mr. Wadkins had a good deal of valuable property.

Mr. Erskin North is having a store house built. It will mean a good deal to Baptist work. North's Imperial Restaurant will open May 6.

Mrs. T. A. Williams is on the sick list.

Dr. Y. E. Redmond was in Nashville Saturday.

Messrs. J. W. Redick and Willie B. Johnson have returned from Talladega, Ala.

Mr. Edward G. Park is slowly improving.

Dr. R. H. Green's practicing is growing. His office is over A. N. C. Williams store, Main street.

Dr. R. L. Washington was here Friday on business.

PARIS NOTES.

The revival at the C. M. E. Church has closed, with several souls brought to Christ.

The snow and frost have done much damage to the fruit and gardens.

A call meeting of the white and colored citizens was issued by the Mayor last Monday, to meet in the Court House April 25 at 7:30 p. m., to arrange plans whereby a correct census enumeration could be had. The meeting was a success. The following speakers addressed the audience: Revs. G. W. Woodson, T. W. Hampton, J. H. Thompson and B. F. Harris. $14.00 was raised to pay two colored men to assist in getting a correct number of the colored families of Paris.

Mrs. Crockett Combs was taken very ill last Saturday morning and fell while out in the yard. She is reported to be some better.

Rev. J. H. Thompson and Mr. Jean Iron made a trip out to Bethel last Sunday to visit Mr. Patton Iron, who is very sick.

Mrs. King was burned very bad last Sunday. She died Monday and the funeral was attended by Rev. B. F. Harris.

Rev. T. W. Hampton is preparing for an entertainment at his church Monday night, May 2nd.

NOTICE.

The Executive Board of the National Baptist Convention is hereby called to meet with the Abyssinian Baptist Church, New York City, on Thursday, June 2nd, 1910, for the purpose of arranging a program for the Thirtieth Anniversary of said Convention, which will meet at New Orleans, La., September 14-19, 1910.

The Board meeting will be held in connection with the annual meeting of the New England Baptist Convention; and will give all those who are planning to attend the Edinburgh Missionary Conference an opportunity of being both at the Board meeting and the New England Convention before leaving for Europe.

The Chairman and Secretary of each of the several Boards of the National Convention, the Vice-Presidents and the officers of the Convention constitute the Board for the purpose of making the Program for the Annual Meetings of the Convention.

By order of the Board:
E. C. MORRIS, President;
R. B. HUDSON, Secretary.
